

GANDAKI UNIVERSITY, POKHARA

This course is designed for the Gandaki University Human Resource Management Committee (GHRMC) examination of Gandaki University Pokhara for the faculties of law. The Course covers subjective questions only. The subjective question part carries 100 full marks. The subjective question expected to be examined the critical and analytical capability of the candidates. 10 analytical questions shall be asked (10×10=100).

Subjective Question.

Time: 2 hrs.

- a. Jurisprudence and Legal theory
 - i. Schools of Jurisprudence
 - ii. Rights and Duties
 - iii. legal Personality
 - iv. Possession and Ownership
 - v. Justice
 - vi. New trends in jurisprudence
- b. Constitutional Law and Constitutionalism
 - i. Constitutionalism
 - ii. Rule of Law
 - iii. Separation of Power and Check and Balance
 - iv. Fundamental Rights and directive principles
 - v. Comparative Constitutions
 - vi. Judicial activism and other new trends n constitutional law
 - vii. Emergency power
- c. International Law
 - i. Subjects of international law
 - ii. Relation between international law and municipal law
 - iii. Treaties
 - iv. Nationality and extradition
 - v. International Court of Justice and its jurisdiction
 - vi. Role of United Nations and it's specialized agencies.
 - vii. Human Rights and Humanitarian Law
- d. Criminal Law
 - i. Concept, principles, and classification
 - ii. elements of crimes
 - iii. Participation in crime
 - iv. Offence against person
 - v. Offence against property
 - vi. General Defense
 - vii. Muluki Criminal Code and Muluki Criminl Procedure Code2074

e. Civil Law

- i. concept and principles
- ii. property
- iii. contract
- iv. Torts
- v. Muliki Civil code and Muluki Civil Procedure Code 2074

f. Legal System

- i. concept, types, and characteristics
- ii. Major legal system
- iii. Development of Nepalese Legal System and Influence of major legal system on Nepalese legal system

g. Research methodology

- i. Nature of research
- ii. Methods and techniques of research
- iii. Problem selection
- iv. Hypothesis
- v. Research design
- vi. Data collection and sources of data
- vii. Sampling, Observation, Schedule, questionnaire, and interview
- viii. Processing, Analysis, and interpretation of data
- ix. Structure of research report